Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, South Dakota was founded with hard work, perseverance, dedication to duty and concern for one's fellow man; and,

WHEREAS, Frances Meadow has devoted her life to the betterment of her community, the caring and sharing with family and friends, and the day-to-day giving and loving which makes this nation a great place in which to live and work; and,

WHEREAS, Frances Meadow has reached her 90th birthday, an occasion of joy and celebration; and,

WHEREAS, Frances has given much to this country during her lifetime and it is fitting that we honor Frances on this momentous occasion; and,

WHEREAS, On behalf of a nation grateful for the benefits derived from Frances Meadow's years as a productive and outstanding citizen of the United States:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, GEORGE S. MICKELSON, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim August 3, 1988, as in South Dakota, and I join her relatives in South Dakota in wishing Frances a very happy birthday and many more years of health and happiness.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this Fifteenth Day of June, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Eighty-Eight

GEORGE S. MICKELSON, GOVERNOR

ATTEST:

JOYCE HAZELTINE, SECRETARY OF STATE
